MEADOWVIEW POLO CLUB TO HOST
UNITED STATES POLO ASSOCIATION MID-STATES CIRCUIT TOURNAMENT

Admission is free and offers unique opportunity for spectators

Grand Rapids, Michigan, May 20, 2008 - The Meadowview Polo Club will host the 2008 United States Polo Association (USPA) Mid-States Circuit Sherman Memorial beginning June 7 at Meadowview Farm located in Lowell, MI. The tournament will feature teams from all over the Midwest as well as some of the best polo players from Michigan. The tournament play will take place within Meadowview Farm's newly constructed outdoor arena and there will be no admission fee for spectators to attend this event.

Many elite players will be showcased at this USPA sanctioned event including West Michigan resident, Les Johnson. Johnson has over 35 years of professional polo playing experience including playing internationally in Canada, Mexico and Zambia and is one of Michigan's highest rated players. Les Johnson is also a former coach of the USPA Women's Interscholastic Team.

The tournament will begin with competition on Saturday and continue into Sunday with the consolation game scheduled at 12:30 pm and the championship game starting at 2:00 pm. During and following Sunday's matches, there will be a player luncheon that will give fans a unique and excellent opportunity to meet competitors and witness the trophy presentation ceremony.
